(with Spoor TC).
American Academy of Ophthalmology.
Dallas, Texas; 1992.
 18. Comprehensive Management of Traumatic Optic Neuropathies
(with Spoor TC).
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society.
Big Sky, Montana; 1992.
 19. Standardized Echography of Optic Neuropathies
(with Spoor TC).
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society.
Big Sky, Montana; 1992.
 20. Management of Traumatic Orbital Hemorrhages with Visual Loss
(with Ramocki, JM).
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society.
Big Sky, Montana; 1992.
 21. Maxillary Sinus Mass with Rapidly Progressive Proptosis and Diplopia
(with Spoor TC, DiLorenzo L, Sakr W).
Frank B. Walsh Society Meeting.
New York, New York; 1993
 22. Subarachnoid Hemorrhage, Diplopia, and Temporal-Occipital Mass
(with Spoor TC)
Frank. B. Walsh Society Meeting.
New York, New York; 1993.

23. Histologic Effects of Mitomycin used in Optic Nerve Sheath Fenestration of the Guinea Pig (with Balok EM, Corder DM, Samadani EE, Amirikia A, Spoor TC, Budev H). Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology. Sarasota, Florida; 1993.
24. Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression with Adjunctive Mitomycin-C (with Spoor TC, Shin DH). Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology. Sarasota, Florida; 1993.
25. Traumatic Optic Neuropathy and Intravenous Megadose Corticosteroids (with Bendel RE, Ramocki JM, Spoor TC). Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology. Sarasota, Florida; 1993.
26. Long-term Effects of ONSD on Intracranial Pressure in Patients with Pseudotumor Cerebri (with Samadani EE, Corder DM, Amirikia A., Spoor TC) Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology. Sarasota, Florida; 1993.
27. Visual Outcome in Traumatic Orbital Hemorrhage (with Ramocki JM, Spoor TC). Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology. Sarasota, Florida; 1993.
28. Imaging Studies of Traumatic Optic Neuropathy (Unresponsive to Megadose Corticosteroids) (with Lau-Sickon LK, Spoor TC, Ramocki JM). Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology. Sarasota, Florida; 1993.
29. Theco-Orbital Shunts in Refractory Pseudotumor Cerebri (with Spoor TC, Shin DH) Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology; Sarasota, Florida, 1993.
30. Long-Term Efficacy of Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression (with Spoor TC, Nemeth GG) American Academy of Ophthalmology; Chicago, Illinois, 1993.
31. Neuro-Ophthalmic Complications of Crack Cocaine (with Nemeth GG, Corder DM, Spoor TC, O'Grady J, Balok EM) American Academy of Ophthalmology; Chicago, Illinois, 1993.
32. Complications of Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression (with Spoor TC) American Academy of Ophthalmology; Chicago, Illinois, 1993.

John. G. McHenry, M.D.
Curriculum Vitae, p.32

33. Fluid Associated Anterior Ischemic Optic Neuropathy
(with Spoor TC, Lau-Sickon LK).
Upper Mid-West Neuro-Ophthalmology Group;
Chicago, Illinois, 1993.
34. Traumatic Optic Neuropathy, Megadose Corticosteroids, ONSD, and Optic Canal Decompression
(with Spoor TC, Bendel RE, Ramocki JM, Corder DM).
American Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery;
Chicago, Illinois, 1993.
35. Standardized Echography of the Optic Nerve
(with Spoor TC).
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society;
Durango, Colorado, 1994.
36. Traumatic Optic Neuropathy and Factors Associated with Intravenous Megadose Corticosteroids
(with Ramocki JM, Spoor TC, Bendel RE)
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society;
Durango, Colorado, 1994.
37. Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression for Central Retinal Vein Occlusion
(with Spoor TC, Skidmore EC).
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society;
Durango, Colorado, 1994.
38. Initial Success of Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression for Pseudotumor Cerebri.
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society;
Durango, Colorado, 1994.
39. Anterior Ischemic Optic Neuropathy and Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression.
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society;
Durango, Colorado, 1994.
40. Increased Subarachnoid Fluid in Anterior Ischemic Optic Neuropathy
(with Amirikia A, Spoor TC, Lau-Sickon LK).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Sarasota, Florida, 1994.
41. Visual Field and Fundus Findings in Patients with Pseudotumor Cerebri
(with Spoor TC, Skidmore EC, Ramocki JM).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Sarasota, Florida, 1994.
42. Orbital Trauma in Detroit
(with Nemeth GG, Spoor TC, Ramocki JM).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Sarasota, Florida, 1994.
43. Differences Between Early and Late ONSD in Patients with Pseudotumor Cerebri
(with Spoor TC, Nemeth GG).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;

John. G. McHenry, M.D.
Curriculum Vitae, p.33

- Sarasota, Florida, 1994.
44. Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression for Central Retinal Vein Occlusion (with Skidmore, EC, Spoor TC, Lau-Sickon LK). Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology; Sarasota, Florida, 1994.
45. Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression for Central Retinal Vein Occlusion (with Spoor TC). International Neuro-ophthalmological Society (INOS); Freiberg, Germany, 1994.
46. ONSD for Pseudotumor Cerebri: Initial Improvement, Failure, and Reoperative Success (with Spoor TC). International Neuro-ophthalmological Society (INOS); Freiberg, Germany, 1994.
47. The Long Term Efficacy of Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression with Adjunctive Mitomycin C (with Spoor TC, Nemeth, GG, Nemmers ST). American Academy of Ophthalmology; San Francisco, California, 1994.
48. The Long-Term Efficacy of Refenestration of the Optic Nerve Sheath for Pseudotumor Cerebri (with Skidmore EC, Spoor TC, Nemeth GG, Amirikia A). American Academy of Ophthalmology; San Francisco, California, 1994.
49. Optic Neuropathy with Increased Subarachnoid Fluid and the Role of ONSD (with Spoor TC, Lau-Sickon LK, Nemeth GG). American Academy of Ophthalmology; San Francisco, California, 1994.
50. Pseudotumor Cerebri, Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression, and Acetazolamide (with Samadani E, Spoor TC, Nemeth GG, Nemmers MD). American Academy of Ophthalmology; San Francisco, California, 1994.
51. Factors Associated with the Success of Optic Canal Decompression and Corticosteroids in TON (with Spoor TC, Bendel RE, Amirikia A, Nemeth GG). American Academy of Ophthalmology; San Francisco, California, 1994.
52. Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression and Cryptococcal Meningitis (with Spoor TC, Skidmore EC, Nemeth GG). American Academy of Ophthalmology; San Francisco, California, 1994.
53. Incidence of Ptosis Following Trabeculectomy (with Song MS, Shin DH, Spoor TC, Kim C, Ramocki JM). American Academy of Ophthalmology; San Francisco, California 1994.

John. G. McHenry, M.D.
Curriculum Vitae, p.34

54. Visual Acuity Variation in Patients with Anterior Ischemic Optic Neuropathy Following ONSD
(with Amirikia A, Nemeth, GG, Spoor T)
San Francisco, California, 1994.
55. Early Failures in Patients with PTC Treated with ONSD with and without Adjunctive Mitomycin-C
(with Spoor TC, Shin DH, Recasens, MA)
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society;
Tucson, Arizona, 1995.
56. Visual Field Variability in Patients with Pseudotumor Cerebri Treated with ONSD
(with Spoor TC, Kardasis C, Nemeth GG)
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society;
Tucson, Arizona, 1995.
57. Visual Field Variability in Patients with Central Retinal Vein Occlusion Treated with ONSD
(with Spoor TC, Ramachandran E, Skidmore, EC).
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society;
Tucson, Arizona, 1995.
58. The Long-Term Efficacy of ONSD for Fluid-Associated Anterior Ischemic Optic Neuropathy
(Spoor TC, Lau-Sickon LK, Amirikia A).
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society;
Tucson, Arizona, 1995.
59. Non-needle Retrobulbar Local Anesthesia Technique for ONSF Procedures
(with Ramocki JM, Spoor TC, Rizzuto PR).
North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society;
Tucson, Arizona, 1995.
60. Traumatic Optic Neuropathy.
Neuro-ophthalmic Surgical Society.
Sea Island, Georgia; 1995.
61. Functional Improvement and Documentation.
Neuro-ophthalmic Surgical Society.

62. The Effect of ONSD on the Fellow Eye in Patients with Pseudotumor Cerebri
(with Hakimzadeh R, Spoor TC, Nemeth GG, Rizzuto PR).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, 1995.
63. Factors Associated with Success in Patients with PTC Treated with ONSD with Adjunctive Mitomycin-C
(with Recasens M, Spoor TC, Shin DH, Nemeth GG, Rizzuto PR).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, 1995.
64. Comparison of the Long-Term Efficacy of Neurosurgical Shunting and Repeat ONSD in Patients with PTC
and Failed ONSD
(with Blotnick C, Spoor TC, Tinoosh F, Nemeth GG, Rizzuto PR, Diaz F, Guthikonda M).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, 1995.

John. G. McHenry, M.D.
Curriculum Vitae, p.35

65. Visual Acuity Variation in Pseudotumor Cerebri and Chronic Open Angle Glaucoma (with Spoor TC, Rizzuto PR).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, 1995.
66. Longitudinal Comparison of the Visual Acuity and Visual Fields in Patients with Nonarteritic Anterior Ischemic Optic Neuropathy with and without Increased Optic Nerve Sheath Subarachnoid Fluid (with Amirikia A, Spoor TC, Lau-Sickon LK, Rizzuto PR).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, 1995.
67. Visual Field Stability in Patients with Pseudotumor Cerebri Successfully Treated with Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression (with Kardasis C, Spoor TC, Nemeth GG, Rizzuto PR).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, 1995.
68. Comparison of Perineural Steroids and Mitomycin-C as Adjunctive Therapies in Patients with Refractory Pseudotumor Cerebri Treated with Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression (with Spoor TC, Shin DH, Nemeth GG, Rizzuto PR).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, 1995.
69. Long-term Visual Field Variability in Patients with Traumatic Optic Neuropathy (with Valice J, Spoor TC, Bendel RE, Ramocki JM, Rizzuto PR).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, 1995.
70. Long-term Efficacy of Optic Nerve Sheath Decompression for Central Retinal Vein Occlusion with Visual Field Correlation (with Ramachandran E, Spoor TC, Skidmore EC, Rizzuto PR).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, 1995.
71. Detection and Evaluation of Intrathecal Optic Nerve Sheath Fluid with Ultrasonography Correlation between Standardized Echography, 30 Degree Test and B-Scan Ultrasonography (with Samadani EE, Tinoosh F, Rizzuto PR, Spoor TC).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, 1995.
72. Complications of Cerebrospinal Fluid Shunting Procedures in Pseudotumor Cerebri (with Tinoosh F, Spoor TC, McHenry JG, Rizzuto PR, Diaz F).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, 1995.
73. Quality of Life Improvement Following Optic Nerve Sheath Fenestration for Pseudotumor Cerebri (with Rizzuto PR, Spoor, TC).
Association for Research in Vision and Ophthalmology;
Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, 1995.

John. G. McHenry, M.D.
Curriculum Vitae, p.36

74. Subtenon's Local Anesthesia For Optic Nerve Sheath Fenestration (with Rizzuto PR, Spoor TC, Ramocki JM).
ASOPRS,
Atlanta, Georgia, 1995.
75. Comparison of Acetazolamide, Shunts, and Refenestration for Failed Decompressions for Pseudotumor Cerebri
(with Nemeth GG, Tinoosh F, Spoor TC, Blum L, Blotnick C).
American Academy of Ophthalmology,
Atlanta, Georgia, 1995.
76. Progressive Visual Loss Following Ophthalmic Artery Aneurysm Clipping Treated with Intravenous Megadose Corticosteroids (with Blum L, Spoor TC, Munger CE).
North American Neuro-ophthalmologic Society,
Snowbird Resort, Utah 1996.
77. Techniques of Orbital Fracture Repair - Pitfalls and Pearls.
Neuro-ophthalmic Surgical Society;
